

Enjoy the Christmas magic during your event in Strasbourg

Host your event in Strasbourg

The Convention and Exhibition Centre is undergoing transformations while still running for business! By 2016, it will feature three auditoriums (offering 520, 1,200 and 1,800 seats respectively), 25 committee rooms from 20 to 500 seats, a 2,000 m<sup>2</sup> catering space, and a 10,000 m<sup>2</sup> adaptable space for exhibitions, catering and conferences.

Strasbourg: Elected Capital of Christmas

Since 1570, Strasbourg has continued the tradition of a traditional, authentic, warm and generous Alsatian Christmas and these are all the reasons why "Strasbourg, the Capital of Christmas" continues to enjoy repeated success.

After 10 days of competition to determine the destination approved by travellers of the whole world for the quality and reputation of their Christmas Market, the City of Strasbourg is proud to announce that the market of Strasbourg has been voted "European Best Christmas Market 2014"

Where to stay?

Located along the Ill river, which crosses the city, the Régent Petite France Hotel & Spa ***** can host seminars and welcome your team in its 72 rooms and suits nestled in the heart of "the Petite France" area. Enjoying the perfect location of the old Strasbourg, you'll be able to try the specialties of "Au Crocodile" restaurant, awarded one Michelin Star.
